CARING FOR FRESH FLOWERS

The beauty of having a garden is buds continually blooming on one plant or another throughout most of the year. While this provides lovely views from your windows, it can also be nice to bring some beauty indoors.

Don't be afraid to snip off a few blossoms each week. Many plants thrive after trimming and may reward you with even more flowers. Once you've gathered a bouquet from your garden, consider these tips to help keep fresh flowers at their best for a week or more:

Bacteria can quickly destroy fresh flowers, which is why it's important to use a clean vase. Any floral foam, wires or frogs used in your arrangement must also be washed in warm, soapy water.

Remove any lower leaves that may come in contact with water inside the vase.

Carefully trim each flower stem at a 90-degree angle. It may also be helpful to cut flowers while they are underwater to keep moisture flowing into the stems.

Keep your arrangement out of direct sunlight. The darker and cooler the room, the longer your blossoms will bloom.

Adding a crushed aspirin, bleach, vinegar, sugar or penny to the vase are age-old tricks. However, you can keep bacteria at bay and help flowers thrive by adding a packet of flower food to the water. It can be found at your local florist or home improvement store.

Flowers are living things that still require water, food and care after they are cut. Every 2-3 days, be sure to change the water, replenish the flower food and recut the stems for additional days of glorious color.

SPRING INTO THE SEASON WITH CASA ROMANTICA'S JAM-PACKED CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Casa Romantica Cultural Center and Gardens, the premier museum destination for arts and culture in Southern California, is thrilled to announce an exciting lineup of events for March, April, and May. Jam-packed with events and new series, highlights include a new art exhibition curated by James Irvine Swinden, multiple live music performances including a concert with Japanese jazz pianist Yuko Mabuchi, a dance residency with Backhausdance on Thursdays, garden workshops, and much more.

"As spring brings new energy and renewal, we are delighted to offer a season filled with inspiring artistic experiences," shares Casa Romantica's Executive Director Kylie Travis. "From extraordinary art exhibitions and performances to family-friendly programming, Casa Romantica remains a place where the community can gather, create, and connect with the arts in meaningful ways."

A must-experience this season is Casa's latest art exhibition: Gems of California Impressionism, an exhibition showcasing a stunning collection of landscape paintings curated by James Irvine Swinden. Opening on March 21, the collection captures the beauty of California's coastal scenes and breathtaking mountain landscapes. The Opening Reception invites guests to experience this remarkable exhibition up close and will be on view through June 15. Access to Casa's art gallery is included in general admission.

Music enthusiasts can look forward to an unforgettable evening with Eric Rigler's Celtic Hollywood on March 28 ($175 per person). As the world's most recorded bagpiper, Rigler has captivated audiences in Braveheart, Titanic, Outlander, and Lord of the Rings. His performance at Casa Romantica offers a rare chance to experience his masterful artistry in an intimate setting, accompanied by a seated dinner catered by California Fresh Catering in support of Casa's artistic programming.

Beyond this spectacular night, Casa Romantica has a diverse array of musical experiences this season. Yuko Mabuchi, a celebrated jazz pianist, will grace the stage on April 10 ($45, Members $35), blending jazz, classical, R&B, and blues influences in a mesmerizing performance preceded by a cocktail reception. Opera fans can immerse themselves in Lyric Opera OC's Opera 101: 900 Years of Music in 90 Minutes on April 12 ($30, Members $25), featuring two full-length performances and a special Casa Kids Concert in the morning, perfect for introducing young audiences to the world of opera.

Families can celebrate the environment at Family Sundays: Earth Day on April 6, a free-admission event featuring interactive and hands-on activities that highlight sustainability and eco-consciousness. Enjoy garden-themed crafts including a scavenger hunt, Earth Day-themed worksheets, and a crayon leaf rubbing craft. Casa Romantica's garden volunteers will be placed throughout the property to teach you about the flora that grows in each area and how to take care of them.

Meanwhile, dance enthusiasts can experience the creative process firsthand as Backhausdance begins their public rehearsal residency on April 10, with rehearsals held every Thursday leading up to their site-specific performance in Bloom, inspired by Casa Romantica's gardens. These rehearsals are included with general admission ($8, Members Free). Rounding out the season's highlights just in time for Mother's Day, the beloved 13th Annual Mary Colby Tea returns on May 3 ($100 per person), offering an elegant afternoon of philanthropy with a champagne reception, traditional tea service, and raffle prizes, all in support of Casa Romantica's cultural arts programs.

Ensuring a variety of enriching experiences for the community, Casa

Romantica will also continue many of its ongoing weekly and monthly series. Guests can enjoy Coffee Concerts with High Tide Coffee, featuring intimate morning performances from accomplished musicians in Casa's Main Salon; Weekly Ballet, Meditation, & Yoga, offering wellness programs in a serene oceanfront setting ideal for mindfulness and relaxation; and Story Time, weekly readings designed to engage and inspire young minds with literature and creativity. The Casa Romantica Book Club provides a monthly gathering for literary discussions with fellow book lovers, while Garden Workshops offer hands-on experiences in sustainable gardening, native plants, and floral arrangements. These ongoing programs create meaningful opportunities for visitors of all ages to engage with the arts, nature, and community in a truly special setting.

With free family activities, art exhibitions, live music, coffee concerts, and creative workshops, Casa Romantica has something for everyone. For a complete list of events or to purchase tickets, visit CasaRomantica.org and follow @CasaRomanticaSC on social media.

Cultural Center and Gardens is located at 415 Avenida Granada, San Clemente, CA 92672. Hours: Tuesday—Thursday 10 AM—4 PM; Friday—Sunday 10 AM — 2 PM; closed Mondays and holidays. RED CROSS GIVING DAY, MARCH 26, RALLIES 30,000 SUPPORTERS TO DELIVER AID WHEN HELP CAN'T WAIT AFTER DISASTERS FINANCIAL AND BLOOD DONATIONS ARE NEEDED NOW

The Red Cross Southern California Region is issuing a call to help ensure no one faces a disaster alone by donating on Red Cross Giving Day, March 26.

During the first 50 days of 2025, Red Cross volunteers responded to more big disasters in the U.S. than days — including the Los Angeles wildfires and Kentucky flooding. And that's on top of everyday crises like home fires that have upended lives here in southern California. Meanwhile, more Red Cross blood donations have gone uncollected so far this year due to weather than throughout all of 2024.

"This year's disasters have set a whirlwind pace, displacing thousands of people from their homes across the country and disrupting the nation's blood supply for patients," said Sean Mahoney, Chief Executive Officer of the Red Cross Southern California Region. "As we enter spring disaster season, families are relying on us to come together as a community and support them when help can't wait. Join us today by making a financial donation or giving blood or platelets."

Visit redcross.org today to make a financial donation or schedule an appointment to give blood or platelets in March:

MAKE A FINANCIAL DONATION: Donations will be part of Red Cross Giving Day, which aims to rally 30,000 individuals to help people affected by disasters big and small. A gift of any size makes a difference. For example, a donation of $3 can provide a comfort kit with supplies like a toothbrush, comb and shampoo, and a gift of $11 can provide a nutritious meal, snack and drink.

For those who are able, any donor who gives $140 or more in March will receive a choice of a Red Cross monopack or a pair of socks as a thank-you for supporting our mission. Donors can make their gift and claim their thank-you by visiting redcross.org any time during March.

GIVE BLOOD OR PLATELETS: To help overcome the significant weather impact on blood donations, the Red Cross also urges the public to give lifesaving blood or platelets by making an appointment today at RedCrossBlood.org, on the Red Cross Blood Donor App or by calling 1-800-RED CROSS. People of all blood types are needed now to help avoid further strain to the blood supply.

The Red Cross is expanding its health offerings by performing free A1C testing (commonly used to screen for prediabetes and diabetes) on successful blood, platelet and plasma donations in March. No fasting is required. Additionally, all who come to give blood, platelets or plasma March 1-31 will receive a $10 Amazon.com Gift Card by email. See RedCrossBlood.org/March for details on both offers.

VOLUNTEER TO MAKE COMMUNITIES SAFER: Home fires are the most frequent disaster response for the Red Cross, which is also working to help families stay safe by installing free smoke alarms during its Sound the Alarm home fire safety events in at-risk communities. Volunteers comprise 90% of the national Red Cross workforce to power its lifesaving mission, and are needed for Sound the Alarm event in Huntington Beach on Saturday, March 29 from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. Those interested can sign up now at SoundTheAlarm.org/SoCal.

What is A1C testing?

- Common blood test that measures your average blood sugar level over the past 3 months.
- High A1C levels may indicate prediabetes or diabetes.
- No fasting needed.

About the American Red Cross: The American Red Cross shelters, feeds and provides comfort to victims of disasters; supplies about 40% of the nation's blood; teaches skills that save lives; distributes international humanitarian aid; and supports veterans, military members and their families. The Red Cross is a nonprofit organization that depends on volunteers and the generosity of the American public to deliver its mission. MAKE A POSITIVE IMPACT BY PLANTING A TREE

There are countless ways you can make your environmental contributions felt. If you'd like to join millions of others in the fight for Mother Earth, consider one of the most popular gifts given back to the world each year: planting a tree.

Consider these tips to properly plant a tree in your own yard.

Choose the Right Tree and Location

Depending on where you live and your desired outcome, choosing the right tree and planting location are critical factors. Larger shade trees help cool homes in warmer climates, evergreens provide privacy and fruit trees offer a grocery store right in your backyard. Consider your available space along with conditions that will impact the tree itself, such as soil conditions, sun exposure, drainage and more.

Dig Safely

Before digging, remember that proper tree placement requires factoring in underground utility lines, overhead power lines and proximity to sidewalks, driveways and homes. Dial 811, the national call-before-you-dig number, to locate underground utilities and consider contacting an arborist or tree care professional to make sure you've weighed all the important factors.

Break Ground

Dig a hole that's roughly 2-3 times wider than the root ball of your tree and equally as deep as the root ball. Be sure the trunk flare (where the trunk expands at the base of the tree) is partially visible when planted. Remove any wrapping or cover from the root ball and trunk. Lift from the root ball, not the trunk, to place in the hole then straighten vertically and firmly backfill soil around the root ball to stabilize.

Add Mulch

Mulching helps maintain moisture and improve soil conditions while controlling weed growth. Place a 2-3-inch layer in a 3-foot radius around the base of the tree without touching the trunk itself.

Keep Soil Moist

Make sure your tree has enough water to grow strong by keeping the soil moist. Typically, this means watering just once per week, barring rain, but may require more frequency during especially hot weather.

GET THE TIMELESS LOOK OF AN ITALIAN GROTTO IN YOUR HOME

Have you ever walked through a rustic, stone piazza in Italy - or dreamed of it - and wished you could bring a little of that look into your own home? You can. It's a new design trend, using weathered stone and brick, which are normally associated with outdoor spaces, in your interior designs, creating warmth, timeless beauty and even a bit of drama in your home.

But stone and brick are heavy, oftentimes requiring structural reinforcements when using them in design. The solution? Manufactured stone veneer, or MSV. Its lightweight composition simplifies installation without the need for those additional structural reinforcements. Simply put, it's easier to use and gives the same look, feel and warmth.

What is MSV? It's a concrete mixture that is hand-colored with iron oxide pigments and cast in flexible molds taken from natural stone or traditional brick. Use it for focal points like exterior entrances, interior foyers, mudrooms, fireplaces, walls or kitchen backsplashes.

MSV innovations like those from Westlake Royal Building Products help bring timeless architectural features like archways, fireplaces and textured accent walls into homes. You can use it outside, too, to bring character to patios and outdoor entertaining areas. Stone and brick veneer integrates well with a variety of other materials, adding an organic component that enhances both interiors and exteriors.

Here are some ways to add the timeless look of stone, brick and wood to your interior designs.

Ancient inspiration. Infuse your home with Italian amore! Turn your family room into an Italian grotto or your bathroom into an elegant spa with Loreio Brick, by Eldorado Stone. This linear brick veneer was inspired by ancient Roman architecture and lends a timeless air to the space. Pair it with beamed ceilings, wrought-iron fixtures and candles and you've got a modern bathroom with its roots in antiquity. Imagine earthy tones and neutral colors, blending classical and modern design.

The warmth of wood. Transform your den or family room into a contemporary lodge with Rivenwood, also by Eldorado Stone. Inspired by slender lengths of saw-cut barnwood, it's rustic modern, with authentic wood details like nails, breaks and knots. It lends the feel of wide, open spaces, luxury ranch life and relaxing in front of the fire at the end of a long ride through the countryside.

A mosaic of color. Country LedgeStone by Cultured Stone is ideal for creating a textural mosaic around a fireplace or on an accent wall. Think "organic modernism" that combines organic textures and nature-inspired elements with minimalist design to create warm, relaxed spaces. The look is long and sleek, offering a relaxing, yet upscale feel to your indoor spaces.

A whisper of winter. Dutch Quality Stone's Handformed Brick is a new, tumbled brick veneer. It brings to life old world craftsmanship, with every brick having a unique texture and artisanal charm. The attention to detail adds a rich sense of lineage to the look of your new or renovated space. Handformed Brick is available in three colorways, including the new Snowpack color that was inspired by the crisp, clean essence of freshly fallen snow.

The look of brick, stone and wood will infuse your walls with color, warmth and life, evoking images of ancient Italy, the open frontier or even a blanket of new snow. - (BPT)

THE CORK & CRAFT: WHERE CRAFT BEER, HOUSE WINE MEET CULINARY ART

Story and photos by Rico Cassoni

Where else can you enjoy craft beer, house-made wine, and a chef-driven menu all under one roof? The Cork & Craft @Abnormal is San Diego's only restaurant, winery, and brewery in one location, offering a unique experience for food and beverage lovers. Whether you're sipping on a house-crafted beer, enjoying a glass of in-house wine, or indulging in a thoughtfully prepared dish, passion and creativity are evident in every detail.

With multiple seating options, guests can dine indoors, relax on the outdoor patio, sit at the bar, or book The Library, a private space for special events. The restaurant features 40 taps, including Abnormal's signature brews alongside guest draft beers. The house-created wines provide an alternative for those looking beyond beer. The gastro pub menu blends refined techniques with comforting flavors.

Recently, Owner and Executive Chef Ethan Yang of GlassBox joined Cork & Craft as a managing partner, bringing his expertise and innovative approach to the dynamic kitchen team led by Executive Chef Scott Cannon. Terry Tse, Ethan's General Manager and Director of Operations at GlassBox, has also joined as General Manager and Director of Operations, ensuring seamless service. With this powerhouse team, Cork & Craft is reintroducing a refined dinner menu, they had before the pandemic.

Since joining The Cork & Craft @ Abnormal in 2016, Executive Chef Scott Cannon has shaped the restaurant's identity, blending elevated flavors with approachable dining. A Central Valley native from Coalinga near Fresno, Scott's culinary journey took a turn when he switched from studying heating, ventilation, and air conditioning (HVAC) to culinary arts at the American Institute of Technology.

After graduating in 2005, Scott moved to San Diego, where he trained under Executive Chef Paul McCabe at L'Auberge Del Mar, refining his skills in fine dining. In 2010, he spent time in Oregon, but San Diego's vibrant food scene drew him back in 2012. He worked at Delicias in Rancho Santa Fe and Jake's Del Mar before finding his home at Cork & Craft.

Scott's talent earned him a 2018 Zagat "30 Under 30" finalist distinction. Now, as Cork & Craft reintroduces its formal dinner menu, he continues to lead the kitchen with refined techniques, inventive dishes, and a commitment to creating memorable dining experiences.

Shortly after arriving, our server Gavin Hole and Executive Chef Scott Cannon welcomed us. Wanting us to fully experience the menu, Chef Scott suggested we try something from each section. With Gavin's expert beer pairings, each dish reached another level.

We started with the Roasted Carrot Hummus, served with house-made naan, pickled red onion, and tzatziki. Chef Scott's passion for making naan was evident, the fried naan was golden and crisp on the outside, yet warm and pillowy inside. Gavin paired it with Familia, a light Mexican-style lager. Its malt-forward character, subtle corn sweetness, and citrusy lime notes from Motueka hops balanced the hummus and enhanced the naan.

Next, the Seared Salmon arrived, plated with celery root mashed potatoes, broccoli, and an apple cider butter emulsion. The buttery emulsion added richness, while the slightly sweet celery root mash provided depth. Gavin recommended the Abnormalweiss, a light and aromatic wheat beer with clove notes and fruity hints of banana and citrus. The citrus and spice balanced the dish, making for a harmonious pairing.

For our main entrée, we had the Braised Short Rib, served over pumpkin risotto, with Bok choy and a spiced demi glaze. The fork-tender short rib was flavorful, with the spiced demi glaze adding layers of richness. Gavin paired this dish with Abnormal Brown Ale, a light-bodied brew with chocolate and toffee notes and a smooth finish. The nutty depth of the brown ale complemented the demi glaze, making for a standout pairing.

As we were winding down, Chef Scott recommended a surprise dish from the 'Extras' menu, the Garlic Noodles. This deceptively simple yet bold dish featured thick spaghetti-like noodles tossed with cremini mushrooms, fresh parmesan, scallions, and confit garlic, finished with soy sauce. Gavin paired it with Abnormal Mocha Stout, brewed with cacao nibs, lactose, and local coffee. Initially, I wasn't sure how it would work, but after three perfect pairings, I trusted Gavin's instincts. He was spot on again. The deep, roasted coffee notes and creamy texture of the stout paired beautifully with the umami-rich noodles.

For dessert, Frank and I both had our eyes on the Crème Brûlée Bread Pudding, and Chef Scott confirmed it was the way to go. The brioche bread pudding was topped with seasonal mixed berries, currently blueberries, then warmed in the oven, and topped with a generous scoop of vanilla bean ice cream. The contrast of warm, custardy bread pudding with cold, creamy ice cream was heavenly. Paired with a few remaining sips of Mocha Stout, the deep chocolate and coffee notes enhanced the dessert, making it the perfect sweet finale.

With beloved gastropub favorites that pair seamlessly with its house-brewed beers and wines, and a new refined dinner menu being worked on, Cork & Craft is a North County gem that should be on every food lover's radar.

SOAR BACK TO SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO FOR THE ANNUAL SWALLOWS DAY PARADE

For me, the Swallows Day Parade holds a special place in my heart - not just as a cherished Orange County tradition but as an event I've had the privilege of covering in multiple ways over the years.

One of my most memorable experiences was serving as a commentator for the parade alongside my longtime radio partner, Gary Bergeson, on 88.5FM KSBR.

From our broadcasting booth, we had a front-row seat to the magic of the parade, sharing historical insights, interviewing participants, and bringing excitement to listeners tuning in from all over.

For a few years, we also had the incredible opportunity to help bring Alert The Globe out to live-stream the parade, making it possible for fans to experience the event from anywhere in the world. With an entire crew onsite capturing every detail, it was an ambitious undertaking, but one that allowed thousands more to participate in the celebration - even if they couldn't attend in person.

Whether behind the microphone, writing about the parade, or helping to share it with a global audience, it has been an honor to be a part of this timeless tradition.

And this year, as the 65th Annual Swallows Day Parade prepares to take to the streets, I'm just as excited as ever to see the equestrian teams, folklorico dancers, historic carriages, and community spirit come together for another unforgettable celebration.

Organized by the San Juan Capistrano Fiesta Association, this non-motorized parade is one of the largest of its kind in the nation, featuring majestic horse-drawn carriages, equestrian teams, folklorico dancers, and western-themed performances. Set against the backdrop of historic San Juan Capistrano, it's a day where the Old West meets timeless tradition.

The swallows' return to Mission San Juan Capistrano has long been a natural spectacle, with these tiny birds instinctively making their way back to their mud nests along the mission walls every spring. Their migration has become synonymous with the town's identity, inspiring the Fiesta de las Golondrinas, or Festival of the Swallows, which culminates in the parade.

The Budweiser Clydesdales will make a highly anticipated return this year, bringing their iconic red beer wagon and powerful, meticulously trained team of draft horses. In past years, their appearance has been a standout moment, drawing cheers from the crowd.

Another highlight is the Grand Marshal, an honor bestowed this year upon Kathy Holman, owner of Ortega Equestrian Center. Holman's deep-rooted passion for horses has made her a beloved figure in the equestrian community.

Adding to the excitement, the Mercado Street Faire will transform the downtown area into a lively hub featuring over 100 vendors selling handcrafted jewelry, cowboy hats, Western merchandise, and unique gifts. Visitors can also enjoy live country music, a DJ, and a kid-friendly play zone at Historic Town Center Park, where children can participate in games and inflatable activities.

If you're planning to attend, take advantage of free shuttle service from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Offsite parking will be available at Fluidmaster, Inc. (30800 Rancho Viejo Road) and Capistrano Business Plaza (30250 Rancho Viejo Road). Shuttles will drop attendees off at the Old Fire Station site at El Horno and La Matanza streets, just a short walk to the parade route.

For a stress-free experience, consider taking Metrolink, which drops passengers off at San Juan Capistrano Station, placing them right in the middle of the festivities. Visit swallowsdayparade.org for more information.

How to make every day recycling day

FAMILY FEATURES

With so many mixed messages, recycling can feel confusing, but the truth is simpler than you might think. Recycling isn't just for today – it's a year-round commitment to a healthier planet. In honor of National Recycling Day, consider these facts about recycling from the experts and tips to make a difference.

If Americans recycled 1 PET bottle a day, they'd collectively:

- Conserve 1,754 olympic swimming pools' worth of water per year.
- Avoid generating waste equal to the weight of 193,000 elephants annually.
- Avoid burning 3.5 billion pounds of coal each year.
- Lower annual CO2 emissions by an amount equal to the carbon sequestered by growing 53 million tree seedlings for 10 years.

Recycling Is Real

Americans recycle more than 6 billion pounds of plastic every year. Among the plastics recycled, polyethylene terephthalate (PET) remains a responsible material choice. PET is the world's most recycled plastic, with more than 1.8 billion pounds of PET bottles and containers recovered in the U.S. annually. Since PET bottles can be made from 100% post-consumer recycled content, each recycled bottle contributes to a circular economy where materials are continuously reused instead of wasted.

Recycling PET Plastic is Better for the Environment

Countless others from academics, researchers and industry experts show plastics, such as PET specifically, often have a lower environmental impact. In fact, glass bottles produce three times the greenhouse gas emissions compared to PET bottles, and making an aluminum can produces twice the emissions, according to Life Cycle Assessment studies. Producing PET also uses less energy and water and lowers acid rain and smog potential. Using and recycling PET is a more responsible, more eco-friendly choice than banning plastic outright.

Recycling Saves Energy

Recycling PET bottles requires less energy than producing new glass bottles or aluminum cans. Every PET bottle you recycle helps conserve resources and supports a more responsible production cycle.

Not All Plastics are Created Equal

PET is a superstar among plastics because it can be recycled repeatedly without losing strength or quality. It's also an inexpensive, lightweight and shatter-resistant package that preserves and protects the food and medicine people place in their bodies.

Recycling Can be Easy

Recycling services can be accessible, with many communities across the U.S. offering easy ways to recycle. Today more than 73% of all U.S. households have access to recycling, according to The Recycling Partnership.

By staying informed, choosing packaging that's easily recyclable and recycling consistently, you can help build a more sustainable future every day. Visit recyclecheck.org to find out where you can recycle in your community.

5 Recycling Tips

- 1. Know your plastics. Look for the No. 1 recycling symbol – inside three arrows forming a triangular shape – to identify polyethylene terephthalate (PET), helping ensure your recycling efforts are impactful.
- 2. Recycle PET plastic packaging over bins. Choose products packaged in PET bottles where possible, as recycling PET reduces reliance on resource-heavy materials and greenhouse gas emissions.
- 3. See recycling as energy conservation. PET bottle recycling uses significantly less energy compared to producing new glass bottles or aluminum cans.
- 4. Think of recycling as an investment. Every PET container you recycle contributes to a circular economy and more sustainable world.
- 5. Get involved within your community. Connect with local recycling programs and stay updated on your area's recycling guidelines by visiting recyclecheck.org.

Directory Advertising Hits the Jackpot for Small Business with a Limited Ad Budget $49.95

"I'm not a big business, but I know that you have to advertise someplace and these little ads don't cost too much so I figure if you expect to get any new customers, I gave the little 'directory' ads in the newspaper a try. Nothing happened for the first week, not even a phone call. Then Boom! comes three new customers. Paid for my little ads and a nice profit. I'd say I hit the jackpot. Sign me up for another week newspaper ladies!"

The above story may not be exciting but is typical of advertisers who are shopping for advertising that is affordable but gives them something back for their money. Here's another:

As a Woman Who Owns A Small Business These Newspaper Directory Ads are a Great Value

"We women have to work harder to make a small business grow. Thanks to small, affordable ads in this newspaper I've got ads running every week. Every call helps my business grow. I give you an A+ for good prices and steady results."

Looking for the Penny Saver in all the Wrong Places

"I Used to get pretty good results from the Penny Saver, but when the Penny Saver closed up, I found this newspaper's little directory ads are even cheaper and work just about as good. Usually get two or three calls a month and most of them wind up being my customers. My bookkeeper says your directory ads work pretty good for the money"

Newspaper Directory Ads Worked Just Fine, Cost Less than Half! Nice!

"We tried some slick magazine ads that had beautiful pictures on the cover and they worked real good for a while but they were costing us an arm and a leg so we tried these little directory ads in your newspaper. The ads are smaller, but cost way less than half of what we were paying the magazines and the newspaper directory ads seem to work about as well. We are glad we tried them. They are a pretty good deal for the low price."

New Business Owner Likes Lower Priced Ads

"I Just Started my New Business and Happy that I Can Afford Your Newspaper Directory Ads. I need to attract new customers and these ads are priced just right."

Print your ad copy in the box at right.
